Examiner's Amendment and Reasons for Allowance

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Steve Roberts on 1/12/2004.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 8-10 are canceled.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- claims 8-10 are canceled;
- the closest prior art to the current invention are Madsen et al (U.S. 5,189,016), Heins et al (U.S. 4,032,676), van Pottelsberghe dela Potterie (U.S. 3,716,380) and Goldberg (Schaum's Beginning Chem., P. 250).

Madsen et al discloses a glutaminy-glycine dipeptide having a N-terminal amino acid as shown in the specification .

Heins et al teach a method of making N-polyhydroxyalkylamino acids by reacting uronic acids in alcohols, ethers or their mixtures with water in the presence of amino acids at a temperature between 50⁰ to 100⁰ C.

van Pottelsberghe dela Potterie discloses a method of making flavoring substances by reacting a protein hydrolysate, palmitic acid, methionine, lactic acid , water, and etc. at a temperature of 100⁰ C..

Goldberg describes that the reaction process is generally enhanced by increasing the pressure .

However, the instant invention differs from the prior art in that the ratio of the carboxylic acid and amino acid is between 50:1 to 1 :50. ; the reaction is carried out at 105⁰ or more; furthermore, one of the ordinary skilled in the art would not be motivated to change the ratio or temperature without a teaching by the prior art. In addition, unless all limitations of the claims are met, there is no prior art rejection. See In re Zurko 59 USPQ 2d 1690 (Fed Cir. 1991) and In re Lee, 61 USPQ 1430 (Fed Cir. 1991).

Therefore, applicants' claimed subject matter would not have been obvious to the person with an ordinary skill in the art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning the communication after allowance such as sending all post-allowance correspondence should be directed to " Box Issue Fee" or faxed directly to PUBS at 703-305-8755. This will expedite the process of these papers.
